Brothers all,

The general meeting for the month of Oct. will be held on Wednesday the 20th. This meeting and this meeting only will start at 7:00 pm in the Hibernian room. We will be having an open house after a short AOH division meeting.

We must have an initiation this month and we do not have guests at the reading of the Hibernian oath.

The meeting will start promptly at 7:00, with opening prayers, have the induction, hold a short business meeting and keep it under one half hour. Our guests will then be invited to join us after the division meeting. Nobody will be admitted during opening prayers.

For the open house, we will have different brothers give information on, AOH history, National and state information, Our division's history, Children's Charities fundraiser, Degrees, Saint Patrick's parades, Toys for Joe's kids, Hurling club, and Freedom for all Ireland.

This will be information for all brothers old, new and guests, who aren't aware of everything the AOH and our division is involved in. If anyone knows of something I missed, please get back to me.

After the open house, about 8:30, we will then go downstairs and have some light food and beverages. Taking time to share friendship with our new brothers and guests.

Feel free to invite anyone you think would be a good Hibernian for our division. Let me know for a head count.

Yours in our motto of,
Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity
Bro. Ed Barry, President

AOH RAFFLE 2011

FROM BROTHER LOU JAMES:

Brother Hibernians!

It is that time of the year when we start selling our Ireland Trip Raffle Tickets again. As you know, ticket sales at The Allentown Fair went very well! As a matter of fact, the proceeds of the almost 500 tickets sold will cover just about all of our expenses for Raffle for 2011!!! We really need to work hard this year at Celtic Classic, to sell as many raffle tickets as possible and make this year a total sellout! This is our major fundraiser for our Children's Charities. Each year we donate to help support a seminarian, a needy child of Irish heritage at Central Catholic HS, Mercy Special Learning Center, Camelot House, and others. The economy, although rebounding a little has not deminished the needs of children and young people in our area. With your help selling raffle tickets this year, we will be able to continue our support of those in need of our assistance and perhaps even increase that help if we are successful at selling all of our raffle tickets.

One of your obligations as a member of this Division is to sell or buy 10 Raffle Tickets each year to support our Children's Charity Program. Your tickets will be mailed out the first week in November 2010. As an incentive to sell tickets, for each 10 tickets you sell, we will add a ticket with your name on it to the final drawing. The tickets are $5.00 each and in addition to 1st prize of the trip for two to Ireland, 2nd. Prize of a 19 inch HD Television and 7 additional prizes of US Savings Bonds. We also thank The Long Funeral Home in Bethlehem for once again, printing our tickets and for their support. Thank you all for your past efforts and we look forward to our best year ever! See you at Celtic Classic!

IRISH RECIPE

Irish Apple Cake Recipe

8 oz flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 4 oz sugar, 4 oz butter, 3 or 4 cooking apples, 1 egg (beaten), milk. Put flour, baking powder and sugar into a mixing bowl. Mix together. Now roughly chop up the butter. Do not cream or rub in. Peel the cooking apples and slice into the mixture, then stir in the beaten egg and sufficient milk to make a fairly stiff batter. This will be quite lumpy with apples and butter, but it is correct. Pour into a greased tin and bake for about an hour in a moderate oven (375°F).

In Ireland this is served hot with custard or cream, or cut into slices and spread with butter. A little sugar sprinkled on top, halfway through baking, improves the appearance.

Famous Irish:

Molly Brown: 1867-1932

Philanthropist. Born Margaret Tobin on July 18, 1867, in Hannibal, Missouri. Sometimes referred to as the "Unsinkable Molly Brown," this survivor of the 1912 Titanic disaster has become the subject of many myths and legends throughout the years. Her early years were relatively quiet; she grew up in an Irish-Catholic family with five siblings. At the age of thirteen, Molly Brown went to work in a factory. After two of her siblings headed to Colorado to seek opportunity with the silver mines there, she followed, moving to Leadville in 1886. The town was like a giant mining camp, and Brown found work doing sewing for a local store. Her life soon changed when she met J. J. Brown, a mining superintendent. The couple fell in love and married in September of 1886. Achieving great prosperity through the discovery of silver at one of J. J.'s mines in 1893, the Brown family moved to Denver. Molly Brown helped found the Denver Women's Club. She also raised money for children's causes and continued to help mine workers. With her wealth, Brown also expanded her own horizons, taking numerous trips around the world. It was during one such trip in April 1912, after hearing that her grandson was ill, that Brown decided to take the first ship back to the United States; a ship named the Titanic. It was the maiden voyage of the vessel that was supposed to be nearly indestructible. However, on the night of April 14, the ship failed to live up to its reputation. The Titanic struck an iceberg at around 11:40 p.m. and sank in only a few hours. Molly Brown was able to get on one of the ship's few lifeboats and was later rescued by the Carpathia. Aboard the Carpathia, she did whatever she could to help the other survivors. Her acts of heroism, which made news, earned her the nickname "the unsinkable Mrs. Brown." With her newfound fame after the disaster, Molly Brown spoke out for many causes, including women's suffrage and workers' rights. During World War I, she worked with the Red Cross in France. Molly Brown died on October 26, 1932.
